Malcolm X And Barry Gray On Radio Debate

NEW YORK CITY — Moslem minister Malcolm X, leader of Muhammad's Temple of Islam, 102 W. 116th Street, continued his series of successful public debates with an appearance on the Barry Gray show on radio station WMCA (New York City) last week.

The appearance of the young Moslem minister was scheduled to last for 75 minutes but the exchange between the Moslem leader and radio personality Barry Gray became so heated that it was extended beyond one hour.

Most of Minister Malcolm's efforts were devoted to answering expertly the sharp criticisms of Mr. Elijah Muhammad, the spiritual head of the "Fastest growing group of Moslems in the western world." Barry Gray charged Mr. Muhammad with inaccuracy, if not disloyalty, because Mr. Muhammad has asserted that Negroes are not considered American citizens.

"The civil rights debate now raging in Washington is proof that Mr. Muhammad is right," Malcolm X replied. "It would hardly be necessary to keep the August Senate in continuous, around-the-clock sessions to give voting rights to people who are already citizens."

Barry Gray countered by quoting NAACP officials Thurgood Marshall and Roy Wilkins as saying that the Muslim movement is no different than the KU KLUX KLAN. Malcolm X refused to speak against the two NAACP officials.

"We black men are having hard enough time in our struggles for justice, and already have enough enemies as it is, to make the drastic mistake of attacking each other and adding only more weight to an already unbearable load."

Malcolm X Debates With Barry Gray

Malcolm X., spiritual leader of Muhammad's Temple of Islam, 102 W. 116th St., debated with radio personality Barry Gray on the latter's program last Thursday night and answered criticisms of the sect's national leader Elijah Muhammad.

In an hour-long debate, Gray charged that Muhammad was "inaccurate, if not disloyal," in asserting that Negroes are not considered American citizens.

Senate Debate

Mr. X's answer was "The civil rights debate in the Senate proves that Mr. Muhammad is right. It would hardly be necessary to keep the august Senate in continuous, around-the-clock sessions to give voting rights to people who are already citizens."

When Gray quoted NAACP leaders Roy Wilkins and Thurgood Marshall as having said Elijah Muhammad's group was no different than the Ku Klux Klan, Malcolm refused to condemn the NAACP officials.
